

The Center for European Studies & the Wisconsin International Law Journal present

Human Rights Workshop and Symposium

Saturday, April 1, 2017

Teacher Workshop on Human Rights: Understanding How the EU Impacts

Human Rights Regimes

9am-3pm, Best Western Plus InnTowner, 2424 University Ave, Madison, WI 53726

Led by:

Jess E. Clayton (University of Wisconsin-Whitewater)—Mert Kartal (University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point)

Human rights are an essential part of learning about our world. Yet how can it be taught effectively to students in a globally competent manner? Prof. Mert Kartal and Dr. Jess Clayton address the concerns of human rights in the EU context. Participants will have time to discuss and explore ways to develop the workshop themes in their classrooms.

*Going to Friday is not mandatory to participate on Saturday—the workshop is an addition to the human rights symposium and should be seen as a separate but related event. If you are attending both, please register on the UW Law School's website and email Bridget.

Friday, March 31 2017

Symposium: Regional Human Rights Systems in Crisis

Starts at 9am, Room 2260, University of Wisconsin Law School*

Featuring:

Prof. Dinah L. Shelton—Mr. Ali Aduhisi—Dr. Başak Çalı—Dr. Yu-Jie Chen—Mr. Basil Fernando—Dr. Alexandra Huneus—
Dr. Charles C. Jalloh—Dr. Adamantia Rachovista—Prof. Matiangai Sirleaf—Dr. René Urueña—Prof. Jure Vidmar—Mr. Oliver
Windridge

Regional human rights systems have been heralded as one of the greatest innovations of the project of global governance. However, there are a host of issues that pose challenges to the more developed regional systems. The conference allows us to ask anew the question of what are human rights, and where do human rights inscribed at the regional level take us in the contemporary era.

The official website for more information and to register for the symposium is:

<https://hosted.law.wisc.edu/wordpress/wilj/symposium/>

To attend the teachers workshop, please email Bridget McMahan at bmcMahon@international.wisc.edu for the registration form. There is limited hotel space for the night of Thursday, March 30 and Friday, March 31. Those rooms will be on a first come, first served basis. REGISTRATION DEADLINE: MONDAY, MARCH 13.