

MILDRED FISH HARNACK

EVENT

University of Wisconsin-Madison Class of 1925

World War II Resistance Fighter

All the Frequent Troubles of Our Days is a true story about the life and death of Mildred Harnack. Harnack was an American leader of one of the largest underground resistance groups in Germany who was later executed on Hitler's direct order.

Harnack's great-great-niece Rebecca Donner draws on her extensive archival research in Germany, Russia, England, and the U.S. as well as newly uncovered documents in her family archive to produce this astonishing work of narrative nonfiction

Historians identify Mildred Harnack as the only American in the leadership of the German resistance, yet her remarkable story has remained almost unknown until now.

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 20TH

4:00-5:30 PM

"Ich habe Deutschland auch so geliebt"

"And I have loved Germany so much."
