

Building Global Communities: A Conversation around Immigration

Dec. 8, 2018 // 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Founders Hall, Room 460, Alverno College

3400 S. 43rd Street, Milwaukee

In this workshop, participants will explore the opportunities and challenges of their immigrant students in the K-12 classroom. Join us to explore the topic from legal implications to personal stories. You will hear firsthand experience from an immigration lawyer, practicing school administrator, teachers and students. You will have an opportunity to experience some of the procedures and challenges yourself by participating in a lively simulation. Lunch, refreshments and resources provided.

<https://www.alverno.edu/ecommerce/ieo/workshops/globalcitizens/index.php>

Registration fees: $30 professional; $15 student

*The registration deadline for this workshop is December 1, 2018

Agenda

8:30-8:55	Check in
9:00-9:10	Welcome
9:15-10:15	Legal Issues for Immigrant Students by Attorney Cain W. Oulahan
10:15-10:45	Privilege Walk
10:45-11:00	Break
11:00-11:45	Teacher Panel
11:45-12:45	Lunch & Processing Morning Sessions
12:45-1:30	Refugee/Immigration Simulation
1:30-1:45	Break
1:45-2:45	Student Panel
2:45-4:00	Breaking Barriers—Climbing Mountains by Chris Her-Xiong, Hmong American Peace Academy
	Closing

Please contact the Alverno College Assessment and Outreach Center with questions, 414-382-6020 or alverno.outreach@alverno.edu.

This workshop is co-sponsored by Alverno College, UW-Madison's Institute for Regional and International Studies, the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies at UW-Milwaukee (CLACS), and the Institute for World Affairs (IWA) at UW-Milwaukee.

