

IRIS INTERNATIONAL FILM CLUB

Understanding Windrush and the Black Caribbean Diaspora in the U.K.

Prior to the event, participants will watch the BBC documentary The Unwanted: The Secret Windrush Files (see below). At the film club, academic, poet, playwright, and publisher Joan Anim-Addo will present about the Windrush scandal and the Black Caribbean diaspora in the U.K.

The Founder and Director of Goldsmiths' Centre for Caribbean and Diaspora Studies and Associate Editor of Callaloo, Professor Anim-Addo is the first Black female Professor of Caribbean Literature and Culture in the U.K. and one of the "Windrush children" who contributed to the "60 Untold Stories" exhibition.

Professor Joan Anim-Addo

Recipient of 2016 Callaloo Lifetime Achievement Award for invaluable contributions to literature and to literary and cultural studies

Thursday, January 28, 3 to 4 PM Central

Sponsored by the Institute for Regional and International Studies [IRIS], Latin American, Caribbean and Iberian Studies (LACIS), and the Center for European Studies