

Internationalizing Educational Knowledge*

Virtual Public Lecture Series

8 February 2021

4-5pm CST

Mette Buchardt

Aalborg University, Denmark

A Nordic exceptionalism and its variations in education reform processes. The case of Danish modern political history

15 February 2021

4-5pm CST

Sverker Lindblad

University of Gothenburg, Sweden

In Education We Trust: On Handling COVID-19 Pandemic in the Swedish Welfare State

22 February 2021

4-5pm CST

Inés Dussel

CINVESTA, Mexico

The internationalization of pedagogical knowledge. The case of tactile pedagogies, 1920-1960

15 March 2021

4-5pm CST

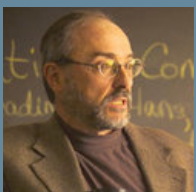

Romuald Normand

University of Strasbourg, France

Following European experts as an embedded researcher. Multiple commitments, contingencies, and asymmetries shaping the academic self

29 March 2021

4-5pm CST

Miguel Pereyra

University of Granada, Spain

Flows of Academic Knowledge Transfer in Today's Spain: The Rise of The New Field Of 'Educational Leadership

questions to: Chris Kruger kruger@education.wisc.edu

register HERE

*In conjunction with Internationalizing Educational Knowledge C&I 366/727

Co-sponsored by: Department of Curriculum & Instruction, European Studies, School of Education's Global Education Committee and Global Engagement Office

