

War's End? The Legacy of Migration and Displacement, Europe 1918-2018

A conference exploring the social, legislative, and cultural legacy of population displacement unleashed by the ravages of wars of the past century

Thursday, November 8-Saturday, November 10, 2018

Pyle Center
702 Langdon St
Madison, WI 53706

For up-to-date information, visit:

europe.wisc.edu/event/wars-end-conference/

Keynote Addresses:

Wolfgang Münchau

Financial Times & Eurointelligence

Thursday, November 8

4:00pm-5:30pm

Vandenberg Auditorium, Pyle Center

His Excellency David O'Sullivan

The Ambassador of the EU to the U.S.

Saturday, November 10

12:00pm-1:15pm

325/6 Pyle Center

Conference Speakers:

Hans-Jörg Albrecht, Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law

Polina Barskova, Hampshire College

Winson Chu, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Anna Cichopek-Gajraj, Arizona State University

Matt Cornish, Ohio University

Selena Daly, Royal Holloway, University of London

Brigitte Jirku, University of Valencia

Teresa Kovacs, University of Michigan

Gayle Magee, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

Norman Naimark, Stanford University

Dorothee Ostmeier, University of Oregon

Ulrike Präger, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

Jan Schwarz, Lund University

Anne Shreffler, Harvard University