

PRESENTED BY: MICHAEL GEORG LINK

“STRONG TOGETHER? GERMAN-AMERICAN COOPERATION IN TIMES OF INTERNATIONAL CRISIS”.

2024

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

12:00-1:15 PM

PLEASE JOIN US!

Friday, February 9, 2024
from 12:00-1:15pm.

Executive Dining 1266

Grainger Hall
975 University Ave,
Madison, WI 53715

Michael Georg Link is Deputy Chairman of the Free Democratic Party parliamentary group in the German Bundestag, responsible for international policy. He is the Spokesperson on Europe of the FDP Parliamentary Group, and since March 2022, has been the Coordinator of Transatlantic Cooperation at the Federal Foreign Office. He is very interested in issues of civil society, including academic exchange between the U.S.A and Germany.

From January 2012 to December 2013, he served as Minister of State for Europe at the Federal Foreign Office and Federal Government Commissioner for Franco-German Cooperation.

ANY QUESTIONS? PLEASE CONTACT:

Eleanor Conrad, Assistant Director/Outreach
Specialist at the Center for European Studies:
ejconrad@wisc.edu

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union